ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO ESTABLISH BRIEFING SCHEDULE ON DEFENDANT'S POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

The United States, with the assent of the defendant, moves the Court to permit the parties until March 18, 2015, to file additional memoranda addressing the issues raised in the defendant's post-trial motions. As grounds, the government states the following:

The defendant has filed a motion for judgment of acquittal or alternatively for a new trial (Dkt. No. 342). On November 6, 2014 (Dkt. No. 526), the Court continued briefing on the defendant's post-trial motions pending resolution by the Supreme Court of Yates v. United States (S.Ct. 13-7451). On February 25, 2015, the Supreme Court issued its opinion in Yates.

The parties have had preliminary discussions about the Yates decision and agree that further briefing is appropriate. The parties have further discussed, and agree to the appropriateness of, the briefing schedule proposed in this motion.

Wherefore, the government, with the defendant's assent, requests that the Court order the parties to file memoranda on or before March 18, 2015.

Respectfully submitted,

CARMEN M. ORTIZ United States Attorney
