JOINT STATUS CONFERENCE REPORT

The parties, by and through their respective undersigned counsel file the following status conference report:

1. Pending motions

(a) The defense filed a motion to compel on October 10, 2014. [DE 602.] The government’s response is due on October 24, 2014. Assuming the Court grants leave to file a reply, it will be filed by October 31, 2014.

(b) Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss Indictment and Stay Proceedings [DE 506, 558, 559]. Government’s Opposition [DE 535].

(c) Defendant’s Motion to Suppress Physical Evidence [DE 297, 387, 388]. Government’s Opposition [DE 343, 350].

(d) Defendant’s Motion to Suppress Electronically Stored Evidence [DE 303, 387, 388]. Government’s Opposition [DE 343, 350].

2. Witness lists, exhibits lists, and Jencks material

The parties have met to confer on proposed dates for disclosing witness lists, exhibit lists, and Jencks material. The government proposes to provide its preliminary witness and exhibit lists on December 15, 2014, and final lists on December 29, 2014. To the extent any Rule 26.2 statements have not already been produced by December 15, 2014 (with respect to the witnesses on the government's preliminary list) or December 29, 2014 (with respect to any additional witnesses on the government's final list), the government will produce the statements at those times.

The defense requests an additional week in order to determine if the parties can reach an agreement with respect to the timing of the defense disclosures.

3. Juror questionnaire and jury selection procedures

On December 1, 2014, the parties intend to file motions proposing further jury selection procedures. On December 15, 2014, the parties will file responses to each other's motions, and, to the extent agreement cannot be reached on a jointly proposed questionnaire, will also file proposed jury questionnaires.

4. Next status hearing date

The parties request that the next interim status hearing be scheduled for November 5, 2014, or a date thereafter convenient to the Court and the parties.

Respectfully submitted,
